

Young Adult Camp

Ms. Bigos, Mr. Lieberman, & Ms. Flores & Jr. Counselor Brandon
Week 5 was awesome! We began the week with a trip to the beach. The water was absolutely amazing. The campers really enjoyed hanging by the sandbar and swimming in the crystal clear water. Our following trip was definitely a memorable one. The Swamp Buggy tour we took was outstanding. You name it, we saw it, from alligators to ostriches! We thoroughly enjoyed the beauty of nature while driving through the Everglades in the giant ATV. As scheduled we continue our trips to the park and take part in the fitness program. The campers have really bonded and are working well as a team. We are very pleased with all the progress they have made throughout camp! Although next week is our final week, we have jam packed it with fun and excitement....See you then!

Overnight Camp

Mr. Maynard, Ms. Rodriguez, Ms. Knatz, Ms. Dillon, Mr. Malka, Mrs. Burton & Jr. Counselors Michael, & Erica

This past weekend Overnight camp took to the waters of the Everglades and Key Largo! On Saturday we ventured out on an airboat where campers diligently searched out gators and other wildlife. After the boat tour, campers were able to hold a baby alligator and several kinds of snakes. Unfortunately the campers' request to pet and cuddle with the Florida Black Panthers and bobcats was denied. On Sunday we drove down to Key Largo for a day of snorkeling on one of the Key's most beautiful reefs. Campers outfitted in snorkel gear left the boat searching for coral and fish. Campers were surrounded by schools of fish as well as a grouper passing by here and there. The water was clear and the weather could not have been better. After a long day at sea the campers worked up an appetite and enjoyed a great dinner at Sonny's Smoked BBQ. It's hard to believe we are in our last week of overnight camp. Our final and most exciting trip is yet to come..... Kentwood Overnight Camp will be heading to the Parks in Orlando!

"Rivera's Away, Counselors At Play"

Cabin 1 – “The Dug Out”

Ms. Motta, Ms. Dillon, & Jr. Counselor Tatiana

Hi there! The All-Stars played by the book again, having another Cracker Jack week. We started out by wearing our craziest socks on Monday and having a noodle water party at the pool on Tuesday. We stayed in our PJ's all day on Wednesday. We got to eat yummy waffles and drink chocolate milk! The All Stars also got to use their artistic side, painting rain sticks and working on cool picture frames. The week was topped off with a trip to the Miami Heat Summer Jam! We don't know if it gets any better than this, but just in case make sure to catch us next week for our home stretch. See you then!

Cabin 2 – “The Pirates Cove”

Ms. Rodriguez, Mrs. Mentz, & Jr. Counselors Gio & Chase

What a cozy week it was! On Monday our craziest socks were put on display for all campers to see. Sock War was fun for all of us and was followed up by musical beach balls during Color War! The Sharks had a winning streak this week. But the Gators are chomping at the bit to make a comeback in week six! We painted the man on the moon to celebrate the 40th anniversary of Neil Armstrong taking “one small step for man and one giant leap for mankind.” Swimming was great, as always. The Pajama Party was fun for everyone. We thoroughly enjoyed our waffles and chocolate milk! We felt the Heat down in our soul on Friday as we made our way down to the American Airlines Arena and had the chance to meet Burnie and watch the awesome slam dunk show! We can't believe there's only one week left!

Cabin 3 – “The End Zone”

Ms. Nathan, Mr. Malka, & Jr. Counselor Audrey

This week has been a blast! We sorted and paired up crazy socks in order to earn points at Color War. We continued to cool off and splash it up during swimming on Tuesday and Thursday. On Pajama Day, we just rolled out of bed and headed to our favorite camp. Video games, computers, sports—the list goes on and on about all the fun activities we have done! Best of all, we continue to make lasting friendships. The trip to see our Miami Heat was an awesome way to end the week. Summer has been great fun and we are looking forward to the last fantastic week. We know it won't be a snore...DON'T MISS OUT!

Cabin 4 – “The Players’ Club”

Mr. Manriquez, Mrs. Burton, & Jr. Counselor Nick

The Player's Club had a fun-packed week! We started off wearing crazy socks and playing a sock-matching game during Color War. Afterwards we got ready for Pajama Day by creating our own inventive and unique pajamas. Even though campers came in their PJs, they did not get a chance to snooze. Breakfast is still an important part of the day and the waffles were a delicious treat. We got to tee up and work on our golf swing with a golf practice game. As usual, we had a splash swimming and continued to scrapbook as summer camp is coming to an end. Friday was a slamming good time as campers got to go see the Miami Heat. We saw some amazing things. We look forward to another fun-packed week. Don't forget your sport jersey for Monday!
